103. Oregon Pinot Noir vs. French Burgundy #1

This is a great opportunity to taste the crème de la crème of French Burgundies and Oregon Pinot Noirs. Invite your wine loving friends and have a blind taste test – which is best, local or European?

Ken Wright is all about Terroir. He does a variety of single vineyard bottlings that showcase the diversity in the land and soil of some of Oregon's finest grape growing spots. His wines are full of dark berry fruit and the minerality and stern frame certainly tip their cap to the great wines of Burgundy.

Volnay is the finest village for red burgundy in the southern part of the region known as the Cote de Beaune. The Marquis d'Angerville is unquestionably the finest producer in all of Volnay. The wines are full of red fruit and chalky minerality and age effortlessly.

To compare and contrast:

- 2007 Ken Wright Cellars Meredith Mitchell Pinot Noir, three 750ml bottles
- 2006 Marguies d'Angerville Volnay 1er Cru Champans, three 750ml bottles

104. Oregon Pinot Noir vs. French Burgundy #2

Who says “opportunity only knocks once”? Here is your second chance to do your own comparison of Oregon Pinot Noirs and French Burgundies. Don't let this one get away.

Dick Shea is one of the pioneers of Oregon Pinot Noir. The Shea vineyard site that bears his name can be considered one of the “Grand Cru” sites for Pinot Noir in North America. While the 2007 Estate Pinot Noir has the wealth of fruit that good Oregon Pinot has, it also has vibrant acidity and solid structure giving the wine great balance.

Lignier is one of the legendary producers in Morey St. Denis. His wines are dark and ripe, but have a deep earthiness and minerality that give the wines great balance. Morey St. Denis lies at the crossroads of rusticity and finesse and are some of the finest representations of Pinot Noir in the Cote de Nuits.

For your taste test:

- 2007 Shea Vineyard Estate Pinot Noir, three 750ml bottles
- 2005 Lignier Morey St. Denis Clos Sionnierres, three 750ml bottles

CONDITIONS OF PURCHASE

1. Family Building Blocks/Uncorked Wine Auction (the "Seller") reserves the right to refuse admission to, or attendance by, any person at the Auction or related events.

2. The auctioneer is the agent for the Seller.

3. All wine and other items are sold "as is." Purchasers must rely only on their own inspection and/or opinion; seller makes no warranties, express or implied.

4. Seller does not warrant or represent, and expressly denies responsibility for, and in no event shall be responsible for, the accuracy or description of wines offered, or the correctness of the catalog, including, but not limited to the origin, rarity, age, genuineness, quality, quantity, or condition.

5. Unless specifically set forth, all Auction items expire on May 16, 2010.

AUCTION PURCHASE GUIDELINES

BIDDING

1. All bids are per item as set forth in the catalog, unless otherwise announced by the auctioneer.
2. Seller may combine or divide any items(s) at its sole discretion.
3. Auctioneer and Seller have the right to reject any bid at any time prior to the fall of the hammer without liability. If the auctioneer decides that any opening does not correspond with the value of the article offered, the auctioneer may reject the bid and withdraw the item from sale, and if, having acknowledged an opening bid, auctioneer decides that any advance thereafter is insufficient, auctioneer may reject the advance.
4. No live auction bid shall be valid unless expressly acknowledged by the auctioneer.
5. The highest bidder acknowledged during the live or silent auctions shall be the purchaser and therein assumes full risk and responsibility.
6. By raising a bidder paddle or making a silent auction bid, the bidder warrants that s/he will pay the full purchase price if successful.
7. The auctioneer shall have the absolute right to resolve any dispute, re-offer, resell, or withdraw the lot in question. If any dispute arises after the sale, the Seller's sale records shall be conclusive in all respects.
8. All items offered for sale may be subject to a minimum price below which such lot will not be sold. That minimum price may be publicly stated or confidential.
9. Silent auction bid closing times will be posted. At close, the highest acknowledged bidder shall be deemed to have purchased the item.

AUCTION PURCHASE GUIDELINES

ITEM PICKUP AND SHIPPING

1. Purchases must be picked up by the purchaser prior to leaving the venue at the conclusion of the Auction. Buyers will receive a receipt listing their purchases and after reviewing and approving the receipt, they will pick up their items.

2. Extremely large purchases or heavy items may be scheduled for pick-up or delivery. Please contact Brooke Gries 503-566-2132 ext. 272.

3. Any item(s) not removed from the venue by the above time will be held for three (3) weeks at Family Building Blocks, 2425 Lancaster Dr NE, Salem, OR 97305. Family Building Blocks will make an attempt to contact the winning bidder. If the bidder fails to retrieve the item(s) in question by the end of the three-week period, Family Building Blocks will assume the bidder has abandoned the property and relinquished it to Family Building Blocks, treat the bidder's payment as a straight donation to Family Building Blocks and seek to make other use of the item(s) that the bidder has abandoned.

5. Purchaser shall incur all shipping and insurance costs for items not picked up at the conclusion of the Auction.

6. Out-of-state bidders shall be familiar with the laws of their locality since shipping regulations, especially those pertaining to beverages of alcoholic content, vary from state to state.

7. In the event of loss or damage to any item incurred in the course of its handling or storage during the auction event and before possession is taken by the buyer, the buyer will be compensated as follows: 1) if the item has not been paid for, the exact amount of the bid amount will be subtracted from the buyer's purchases; or 2) if the item has been paid for, the buyer will receive a refund of that bid amount.

TRAVEL PACKAGE STIPULATIONS

Before bidding, please read carefully the following conditions of purchase for all travel packages. Travel packages sold through the Auction contain only those elements listed in the auction lot description.

1. Air travel must not be interrupted. Airfare is to be booked point-to-point. Any changes or additions to travel will be at the buyer's expense. This condition also applies to rental cars or other ground transportation not included in the auction lot description.
2. Expiration dates are NOT flexible. Expiration dates have been carefully selected by the donors involved. To request an extension beyond the expiration date could place undue burden on the donor and jeopardize future donations to the Auction.
3. All reservations (air, rental cars, lodging, etc.) must be made within dates specified in supporting documentation and as contained in the auction package.
4. Once a trip is scheduled and confirmed by the buyers, changes may not be allowed by the donors. If a donor is unable to accommodate requests to reschedule or if a requested change results in a donor not being able to honor all components of the trip, Family Building Blocks/The Uncorked Wine Auction will not refund any portion of the trip purchase.
5. Some trip features or amenities may have to be paid by the buyers at the time of use. Such expenditures will not be reimbursed unless specifically listed in the auction item description as qualified for reimbursement by the Auction.
6. PLEASE NOTE: If a buyer donates a travel package purchased at the Auction to another charity, or it is resold to another person, bidder assumes ALL risk. Family Building Blocks/The Uncorked Wine Auction will not be responsible for honoring any elements contained in travel packages purchased outside the Auction.
